ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We, the family of Charlie Peele, gratefully acknowledge with sincere thanks and appreciation, the many acts of kindness, support, prayers, and condolences shown during the illness and passing of our loved one. May God continue to richly bless and keep all of you.

God's Call

*God saw him getting tired, and a cure was not to be,
So he put His arms around him and whispered, "Come with me".
He slipped away so quietly, No time to say good-bye,
And went to be with Jesus in His home beyond the sky.
A golden heart stopped beating, Hard working hands now rest,
God took him home and proved to us, He only takes the best.*

St. John 11:25-26

I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

The Obituary

Charlie Miles Peele

Sunrise: Aug. 9, 1931

Sunset: Nov. 7, 2001

Heaven was missing an angel, God set his eye on you. He touched you with his mighty hand and on wings away you flew.

Charlie Miles Peele was born in George, North Carolina on August 9, 1931 to the late Ned and Fannie Peele. He departed this life on Wednesday, November 7, 2001 at Kindred Hospital.

At an early age he joined the Jerusalem Baptist Church. He attended public schools in Northampton County and A&T State University. He was inducted into the US Army in 1951 and was discharged with honors on August 20, 1953.

Upon moving to Greensboro in 1953, he joined the United Institutional Baptist Church. He was a faithful member until his health began to decline. For many years he was the leader of Ward 8 and served on the Usher Board. He was also employed with the US Postal Service.

In December of 1957, he married Cornelia Graves. He remained a loving and faithful husband until his death. This union brought one daughter.

He leaves to mourn his loss: wife, Cornelia Graves of the home; daughter, Carolyn McKoy (Darrell) of Greensboro, NC; one grandson, Darrell; one great grandson, Jalen; two god-sons, Myles Falcon and Jerome Malloy; two sisters, Katie Malloy of Greensboro and Reather Peele of Richmond, VA; one aunt, Ellen Wilson of New York City, NY; two sister-in-laws, Daisy Peele of Portsmouth, VA and Cora Peele of Kelford, NC; two brother-in-laws, Titus Grant and Alton Milton both of Greensboro, NC and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
